

responsible-
investor.com

ESG and sustainable finance

Responsible Funds, Oct. 26: CalPERS-backed Quotient unveils Sustainable Beta product

The round-up of responsible funds news

by RI journalists | October 26th, 2012

New York-based boutique quantitative environmental, social and governance (ESG) boutique fund manager Quotient Investors has unveiled a new 'Sustainable Beta' product that aims to capture higher levels of positive ESG exposure while controlling risk to benchmarks, according to a client newsletter. Quotient was formed and funded by the California Public Employees' Retirement System and Strategic Investment Group under the CalPERS Manager Development Program II in 2008. CalPERS has already allocated $100m to Quotient's Sustainable Alpha ESG strategy.

Home page